

College / Career / Young Singles Ministry Questionnaire

In the interest of creating a fellowship / ministry for young adults who share a common interest in spiritual growth and fellowship in the context of college and / or career life; we have been trying to get some feedback as to how the church might address the unique interests of this group and meet their need for fellowship and spiritual growth. Please take a moment to offer some suggestions that might help us create such a fellowship / ministry. Return to Cliff Denby or respond by e-mail cdenby80@comcast.net by Fri 1/27/12 and get free bowling and food on Sat. 1/28/12 (4:00 @ stars)

What type of fellowship activities would motivate you to participate in a fellowship / ministry for college & career / young singles? Bible study, worship, potluck (food), _____

What type of service activities would motivate you to serve your church family and / or the community?

What type of recreation activities would motivate you to participate in a fellowship / ministry for college & career / young singles? _____

How often should such a fellowship / ministry meet (weekly, monthly, bimonthly)?

What days / times are preferable? _____

Where should a ministry such as this meet (church, someone's home, out in the community)? _____

What is the best way to get information about a college & career / young singles ministry / fellowship (email, Facebook, church bulletin / website) ? _____

What other church ministries / activities do you participate in regularly. _____

Any other questions / suggestions are welcome _____